RESUME MONEY
TRUST HEARINGSTHE COMMITTEE WILL AGAIN
BEGIN WORKING

ALONG DIFFERENT LINES

Will Recommend Legislation That Will More Evenly Distribute Wealth of Country.WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—Beginning where it left off early last summer the Pule money trust investigating committee will resume its hearings here on Monday, December 9th.While the committee picks up the thread where it was dropped last June, it is not quite the same thread.
In other words the data on which the committee will base its investigation is an entirely new set of facts which have been assembled by a new set of experts who were put on the scent after it was discovered that the ten thousand dollars worth of material gathered by the first set of experts during the summer, ran so much to glittering generalities that it was not of much if any practical value.This does not mean that the Pule committee has discarded the information as to the operation of high finance, which it acquired in its former hearings at Washington and New York, but it is merely proceeding along different lines.At the former hearings the committee was greatly hampered by the limitations affixed to its authority in the matter of forcing bankers to divulge to the committee the secret financial affairs of their respective institutions.At the time the committee was sitting at New York, Chairman Pule announced that unless congress gave to the committee the authority to secure this information, by adopting the joint resolution then pending before the senate, future investigation of the so-called money trust would be futile.
And it was because the committee had gone as far as it could with limited power, that the investigation was closed for the time being.Although congress adopted the resolution granting further powers to the committee, it is still a disputed question whether or not a banker can be forced to reveal the innermost secrets of his bank. The contention of the latter class is that the relation of a depositor with his banker is as sacred as the relation existing between a man and his doctor or his lawyer.Samuel Untermyer, the chief council for the committee, has gone carefully over all the data gathered by the new set of experts and expresses himself as being free of doubt as to the ability of the committee to not only uncover all the facts and conditions which have consummated in the alleged concentration of the wealth of the country into the hands of a few individuals, but will be able to recommend to congress legislation which will make for a more equal distribution of this wealth and block all fu-ture tendencies of vast concentration.
The committee expects to develop in its present investigation the fact that the Morgan-Rockefeller interests alone control about 35 per cent. of the nation's wealth.This control is alleged to have been achieved by virtue of these interests dominating not only 355 financial institutions, but many other organizations in this country, stretching from Maine to California. "This means that the Morgan-Rockefeller interests hold in their hands practically, the financial life or death of the nation."That the monetary health of the nation should not be in the custody of one or two private hands is the hypothesis on which the committee opened its investigation today.During this investigation Mr. Untermyer has promised to prove that 9 is a comparatively easy matter for these alleged overlords of the financial domain to concentrate, in a short or time than is required to mobilize an army, most of the money of the nation in New York City, to be parceled out to favorite institutions or individuals at rates stipulated by the conspirators, while merchants and other business men in the interior of the country go begging in vain for money with which to carry on their legiti-mate enterprises.The committee promises to go forther and show that it is absolutely impossible for anyone who does not "belong" to finance any enterprise without the sanction of these interests.The committee expects to place on the stand men who will testify that they have been driven out of business because they were unable to get money at reasonable rates while others were being accommodated with ample loans at fair prices.The committee promises to show that this is not only true of individuals but also of great financial institutions throughout the country. The attempt will be made to establish the fact that so overwhelmingly does the Morgan-Rockefeller interests dominate and dictate the finances of this country that there are few if any financial institutions in America who are willing, if indeed able, to resist the demands of these interests.Mr. Untermyer and his associates will undertake to prove that with the Morgan-Rockefeller chain of banks as a basis, there is a well established understanding between the great industries, such as the United States Steel Corporation and the International Harvester Corporation, on one side, the great railroad systems on another, and the great public utility plants on another, which enables these factors to manipulate banking conditions to their own advantage and to the undoing of all "outsiders."

To Build Canning Factory.

CHICOTAH, Okla., Dec. 7.—R. Y.
Auld is busy getting out about 20,000 feet of lumber for the new canning factory he will erect near the city. It will be a modern plant, up-to-date in all its appliances, and will have a capacity of 30,000 cans per day—just three times the capacity of the one he operated this year.
The Katy railroad has made a special rate card for his goods, to take effect on the 20th instant. He has yet on hand this season's canning, 3,000 cases which he will readily dispose of, now that he has special shipping rates.A compulsory school attendance law for Alaska is urged by Dr. P. P. Claxton, United States commissioner of education, who has charge of the schools for natives in the territory.Bevy of Beauties in "Louisiana Lou," Which Comes to the Grand Theater, December 12TAKE RAP AT ST. LOUIS CITY COUNCILMENCONFEDERATE SONS DENOUNCE ACTION OF CITY COUNCIL RECENTLY.At a meeting of the state officers of the United Sons of Confederate Veterans of Oklahoma held here Friday and presided over by Tate Brady, state commander, the following resolution, concerning the controversy over the erection of a confederate monument in a St. Louis park, was unanimously passed:WHEREAS, at a recent meeting of the St. Louis city council permission was denied our sister order, the Daughters of the Confederacy, to erect a monument in Forest Park to the memory of our fallen heroes, therefore be itRESOLVED, that, remembering the words of the martyred McKinley, who recommended to congress that the government take care of the graves of our fallen confederates as well as our Union soldiers, who appointed the confederates, Wheeler and Lee, to command United States armies in the Spanish-American war.And further remembering the patriotic words of President Taft justthe other day at the dedication of a monument to the confederate heroes at Arlington cemetery:"It fell to my official lot with universal, popular approval to issue the order which made it possible to erect in the National Cemetery of Arlington the beautiful monument to the heroic dead of the South that you have founded today."We are amazed that the city council of St. Louis should have denied such a request. Ourselves and our fathers before us looked upon St.
Louis as a great cosmopolitan city of lofty ideals and we do not believe this action of the city council which does violence to her treatment of our people for a century represents the great heart of St. Louis.RESOLVED further that we endorse the action of St. Louis Republic which has taken such a broad and patriotic view of this matter as to entitle it to the esteem of all men and women who put the right above and beyond the mere question of barter and trade.Committee:

HAVE MUCH TROUBLETHREE MONTHS IN JAIL AND $100 FINE FOR HABITUAL
DRUNKS.Three months in jail, and double that time if they cannot pay a fine of $100, is the sentence that Chauncey A. Houston, judge of the municipal court, will soon begin meting out to chronic drunkards who come before him repeatedly.The city commissioners at Friday's session passed an ordinance, amending a previous city statute, by increasing the penalty for drunkenness. Under the new ordinance, which will become effective the latter part of this month, Judge Houston can assess a fine of $100 in case of "plain drunk or 90 days in jail, or both such fine and sentence combined.The ordinance was passed at the request of Judge Houston himself.
"There are at least thirty inebriates in Tulsa," said Judge Houston in explaining his reasons for desiring an increase of the present penalty for drunkenness, "who have been appearing before me at regular intervals for the past two or three years. I have given them all the chance in the worldto straighten up and in many cases have repeatedly granted them Ben-economy on account of their sincere promises to straighten up or because of families that are dependent upon them for support. But as soon as the new ordinance goes into effect, I intend to pursue a different policy with the confirmed drunks. I intend giving repeated offenders of this kind the full penalty."REPORT SHOWS CITY'S FINANCIAL CONDITION.Disbursements in November far Exceeded all City Receipts.The exact financial value of the city of Tulsa, as far as cash in the bank is concerned, is $220,278.49. This is shown in the monthly report of Usher Carson, city treasurer, which was submitted to the city commissioners Friday.The report shows that the city treasury received from the financial and revenue department during the month of November the sum of $6, $22.52. The disbursements during the same period, however, amounted to a much greater sum than the receipts. The total amount taken out of the city treasury during the month was $29,132.10.The fund with the smallest amount to its credit is the street and bridge fund, which has a balance of $27.44.
The largest fund is the sinking fund, amounting to $22,728.67.TO PROSECUTE PERSONS WHO USE THE "KEYS"City Is Being Defrauded by Persons Who Turn Water on Without License.Arrests and field prosecutions are likely to occur within the next few days, as a result of the promulgation of "keys" used by the city water department in turning on or off the water service. Officials of the department reported to the commissioners Friday that two or three of these keys were around the town and that recently they had used in turning on water at houses where the service had been cut off by the department, on account of failure to pay delinquent water rents.The water department claims to have evidence of this nature against several departments and permission has been given by the commissioners for them to arrest and prosecute such parties to the full extent of the law.There is a city ordinance providing a penalty for such offenses.

Snow in Nowata.

NOWATA, Okla., Dec. 7.—The first snow of the season struck this city yesterday afternoon and in the two hours while it lasted over an inch of snow fell. The old men are very thankful for the consoling moisture which will help fill the creeks and give the water for drilling.There is a high school over a store at Norris, Missouri. Four families who wanted their children to have a high school education without going to town for it, established such a school over the village store. Nineteen pupils, 5 girls and 14 boys, attended this school last year. The course of study is that of standard Missouri high schools, and the work is fully approved by the state authorities. Other country high schools of the same kind are planned.A GREAT RECORD

LOST BUT ONE CONTEST

Defeated Strongest Teams in Eastern Oklahoma. Something of the PLAYERS.

(BY E. A. MACMILLAN.)

CLAREMORE, Okla., Dec. 7.— (Special)—The record made by the E. U. P. S. football season of 1912, is the best in the history of the school.The "preps" began the season with consistent play on attack and defense, and when the season closed, Thanksgiving day in a blaze of glory, the "preps" had scored on their opponents 163 points and had been scored against for but 19 points.The first game of the season was at Vinita and the result, they claim, was a score of 19-13 but the game was protested.The next game with Wagoner ended with a score of 26-0. Then came games with Tulsa, Nowata, Henry Gondell College, Muskogee, Tahlequah and Broken Arrow, all of which he preps won by large scores.Taking up the individual players, Patterson at left half was the most consistent ground runner. He also was a good defensive half. House at right half was wonderfully fast and when once past the line of scrimmage, he was off for a touch down. House played his best game at Tulsa. Johnson at full back ran splendid interference and as a defensive half he was in obstacle to the offensive back field. Cliffe at quarter was a sure sinker and his interference was marvelous. His generalship could not be undervalued. Bond at right end starred in several games and he was the surest and hardest tackler on the team.
He also made a good offensive player.
Flyer House at left end was no less brilliant as a defensive end. Stephens at left guard, E. Johnson at right ackle and Hewitt at right guard made our line impregnable. Bayless at center was a steady player in every game and when he graduates this spring the preps will lose the best center they have ever had.The following is the schedule of the
